

WE ARE RECRUITING

Hi! We are the FJYPB and we are a diverse group of children and young people from different backgrounds and experiences, aged between 7 - 24 years, who have a direct say in the way in which services for all children and young people are run in the family courts.

We do such things as: inspections of Cafcass offices, contact centres and courts; give training to professionals; take part in workshops and conferences; contribute to policy development; and produce helpful resources for people working with children and young people.

We work with judges, solicitors, social workers, family court advisors, politicians and mediators to name a few.

There are many reasons why you may have experience, but here are just a few:

- Your parents have split up.
- You are having contact with a parent or relatives you don't live with.
- You are subject to a Care Order.
- You have attended a Contact Centre?
- You have met with someone from Cafcass? (Guardian/Family Court Advisor).
- You have experience of family mediation?
- You had or do still have a Social Worker?
- You live in the care of another family member or a foster carer?

"Being part of the FJYPB is a brilliant amazing and awesome opportunity. I take part in lots of interesting projects representing and making sure the child's voice is heard.

It's a very rewarding role. You get to learn new skills, make new friends and make a real difference to the family justice system. You also get paid for the work you do and is a fabulous and fun opportunity".
